The distance between the International Airport in San José and the Hotel in Manuel Antonio is 160 kilometers, the average travel time is 3 hours.

Dinner is on your own.

Days 02-03-04 - Manuel Antonio Area, Quepos

We are in the Central Pacific, another coast of the country, precisely in Manuel Antonio, we will enjoy the Hotel El Parador and all the attractions that are nearby such as the Manuel Antonio National Park, which contains a charming combination of tropical jungle, beaches, and coral reefs. These Manuel Antonio beaches are considered by many the most beautiful in the country.

Bordered by lush forest, it is home to 2- and 3-toed sloths, toucans, iguanas, rare squirrel monkeys, and much more. A catamaran tour is included to enjoy the wonderful sunsets in the Central Pacific.

It has a strategic point to visit other nearby beaches on foot such as Playitas beach, Biesanz beach, Pará beach, and Espadilla beach which are less than 10 minutes away on foot, and other attractions that are very close. So these days will be very moving to enjoy all the alternatives in the area.

Day 05 - Depart Costa Rica

Breakfast included at the hotel (flight time permit) then transfer back to Juan Santamaria International Airport to take your flight back home

(Approximately 3 hours before the flight departure time)
