Day 2 - Manuel Antonio, Central Pacific

You will be picked up early at your Hotel in San José and drove to Manuel Antonio in Quepos to enjoy the Paradise of the Central Pacific. You will stay at the Karahe Hotel, located in front of Manuel Antonio Beach, which has a large variety of beautiful gardens nearby and a swimming pool with a small waterfall that gives a pleasant atmosphere.

Day 3 - Manuel Antonio, Central Pacific

On the third day, you will be picked up at the Hotel at approximately 8:00 am to take a guided tour to Manuel Antonio National Park. This national park is one of the most famous in our country for its wide variety of flora and fauna.

The park has three different trails of difficulty, going from a very flat path to a very steep one.

On this tour, a nature guide will walk you through Manuel Antonio National Park, explaining the jungle's mysteries.

One of the highlights of this tour is that Manuel Antonio is home to 3 of the four existing tropical primates (monkeys) living in Costa Rica. Along the walk, it is common to see sloths, birds, and reptiles; also, you can admire orchids and butterflies. The tour lasts approximately 3.5 hours.

Day 4 - Corcovado, Osa Peninsula

You will go to the Osa Peninsula. You will be picked up at the hotel at 9:00 am and be transferred by land to the Luna Lodge Hotel, where you will stay for three days with a plan of 3 meals a day. After being picked up, we will take you to Puerto Jiménez. Once there, you will transfer to the transportation offered by Luna Lodge Hotel, a 4X4 vehicle that will take you from Puerto Jimenez to the Hotel. This transfer is approximately 2 hours.

Luna Lodge Hotel is charming and fascinating. It locates in the southern part of Costa Rica, in an isolated eco-wellness area. The Hotel is a tropical paradise on 60 acres of primary and secondary rainforest on the captivating Osa Peninsula. Also, the hotel is near Corcovado National Park, voted number 1 worldwide.

Day 5 - Corcovado, Osa Peninsula

This day in Corcovado will be a day for you to relax. On this day, as you catch the first rays of sunlight that crown the canopy of the primary tropical forest, your senses will gently come to life as you savor a fresh pineapple. As the mist begins to part to offer you a glimpse of the blue Pacific Ocean in the near distance, you will hear the rhythms of the rainforest, an orchestra led by the wild troop of howler monkeys just a few meters away. You will be able to appreciate hundreds of rare and beautiful bird species such as the Scarlet Macaw, Red-legged Honeycreeper, Slaty-tailed Trogon, and others.

The property has year-round waterfalls, one with a dizzying slide and a refreshing children's pool less than a ten-minute walk from the bungalows.

Day 6 - Corcovado, Osa Peninsula

On this day, you will take a tour to the Corcovado National Park. It takes a halfhour walk along the beach from Carate to get to the park's entrance. Hike with your guide through the lowland rainforest to the beautiful Madrigal River. Learn about flora and fauna.

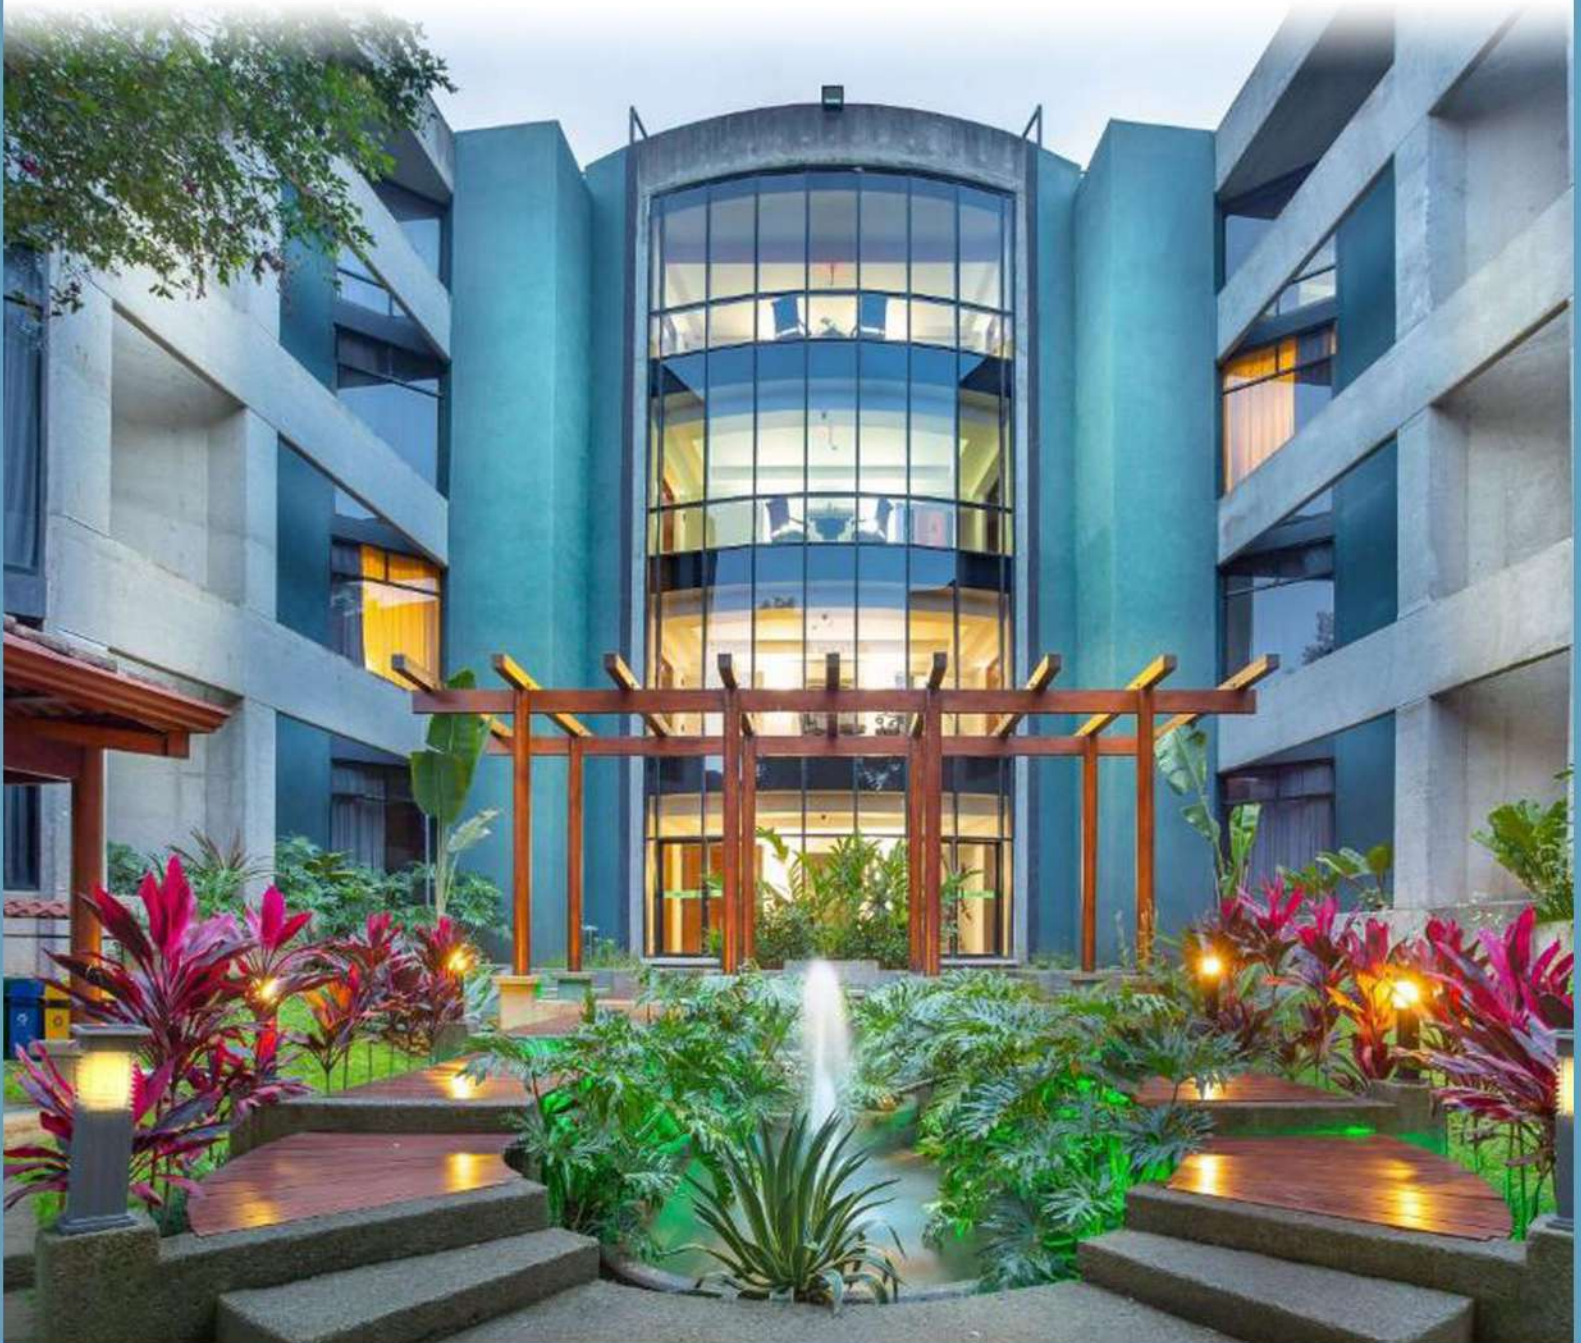

Take a dip in the river and swim downstream to reach the beach. Take a leisurely walk back to Carate along the coast or return to the rainforest trail.

The duration of the tour is approximately 6 hours. Round-trip transportation to the beach in Carate, park admission, and a picnic lunch are included in this tour.

Day 7 - San Jose City

You will return to San José, leaving the Hotel early to take a flight back to the capital city from Puerto Jimenez. Upon arrival at the airport in San José, you will be transferred to the Country Inn by Radisson Hotel, where you can prepare for your return from this incredible experience.

Day 8 - San Jose City

We will pick you up at the Hotel for the transfer to the airport to take your flight.
